Breakaway roper takes first at state

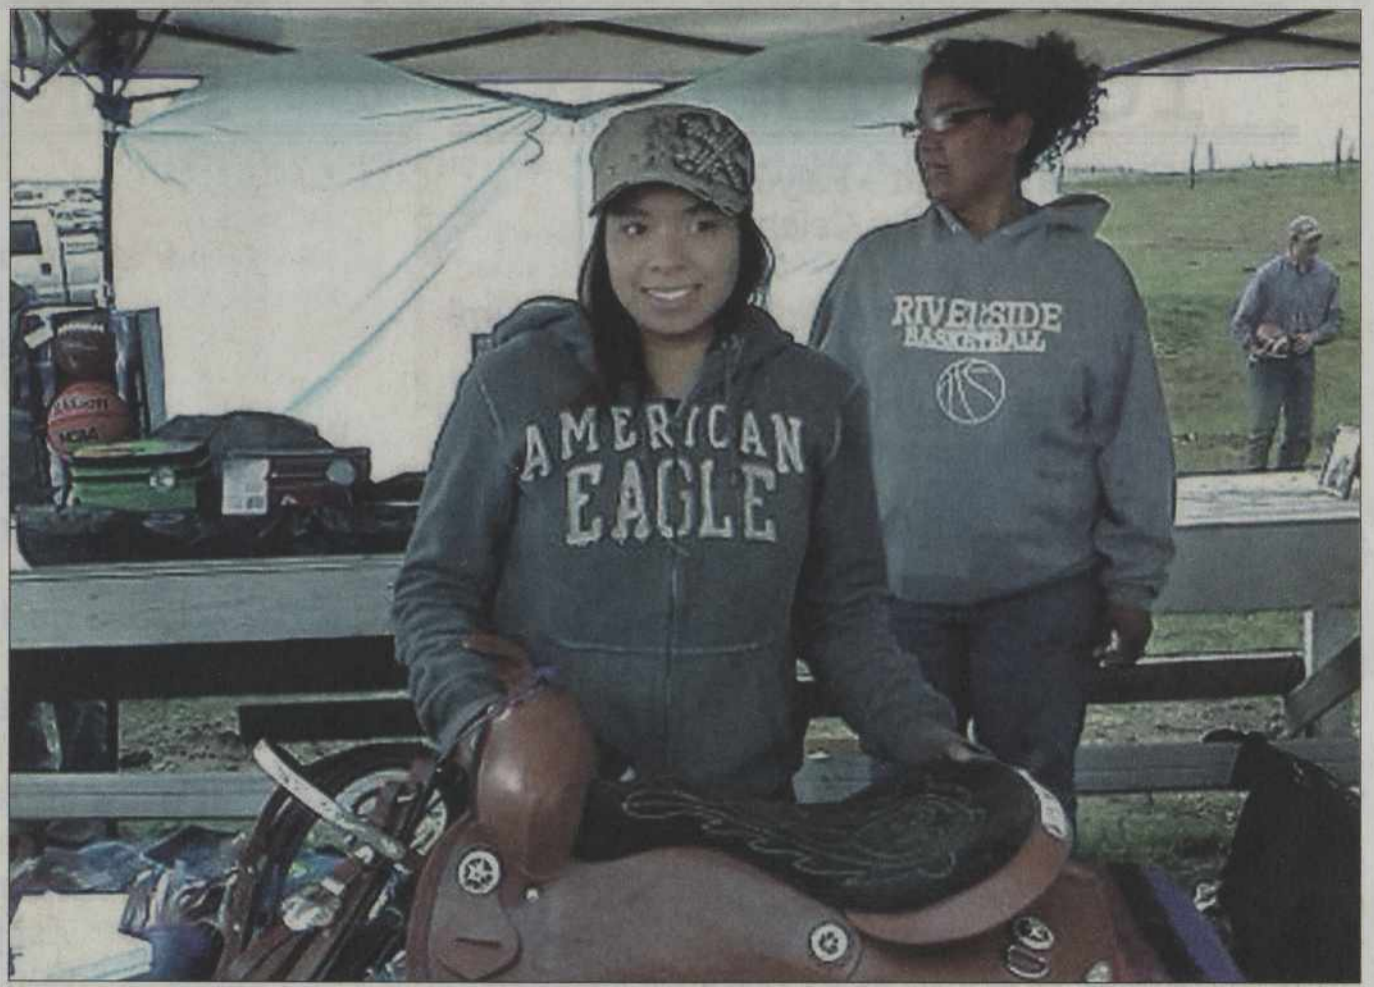

Charmaine Billy won a gold medal at the 2011 Oregon High School Equestrian Team Championship, held at the Deschutes County Fairgrounds, May 19-22.

Charmaine won in the breakaway roping division. She had two-out-of-two catches for a combined time of 10.71 seconds.

Each catch was in the 5-second range.

Charmaine just finished her junior year at Madras High School. She has been breakaway roping since age 12.

Her gold-medal win last month was against all high school ropers in the state.
