Thank you

The tournament started on April 23rd at 10 a.m., after prayer and song by Billy Begay. Teams started playing on Saturday, April 23, finally ending on Sunday, April 24 by 6 p.m., for a total of 29 teams registered.

We would like to take this time to thank all the players; families of the players we were honoring; Jan Six and all her staff who opened the bar to allow us to play for the three days starting on Friday with the jackpot until the last day on Sunday (Easter Sunday).

Thank you to the staff at Rialto and Desert Inn who helped prepare some of the food for Saturday, along with Brenda Sconowah and Lillian Gilando for their fry bread for the luncheon/dinner held for all those who attended, and the many volunteers who brought food to help serve the players, audience and visitors at the Rialto on Saturday.

For the assistance in ensuring the games were going on in a timely manner I would like to thank the following:

Glenda Kessel, assistance with the books and brackets; Clint Smith for assisting in follow-up with tables being monitored and teams on standby; referees were Chief Smith, Del Frint and Levi Vanpelt. Raffle, sales for shirts and raffle drawings were assisted by Lillian Gilando, Pearl Vanpelt, Pat Allen, and Sherri Smith-Miller.

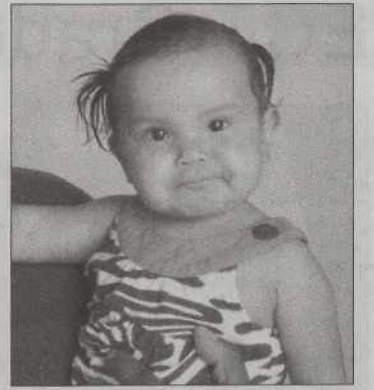

Again, I would like to thank all those who helped in this event. It was an honor to hold this tournament in memory of all those family members and friends who have gone on to honor them at this event. It was good to see all the players come together to enjoy themselves and to remember those players being honored, whether they played at the Rialto, the Meet Market, Porterhouse, Shangri-la, Rainbow Tavern, Warm Springs Youth Club or other location. It was an event to come together and have fun and remember what a gathering of friends meant.

Leontyne "Lynn" Davis.

Parade

We would like to invite everyone to participate in the 2011 Pi-Ume-Sha Traditional Parade. This year we are having it in memory of our late Wasco Chief Nelson Wallulatum. We invited other tribal chiefs and leaders to participate, and we know that a lot of them can't make it because of the economy and other obligations. But, we want to invite everyone to come and participate.

We would like to keep this parade traditional, so put on your tribal regalia and come participate. There is no registration or fees, and we have cash prizes along with ribbons. If you have any questions, please contact Ramona Baez at 541-460-0088. Also, we want to thank you all for supporting our fundraising we had throughout these last few months. It is much appreciated.

The Pi-Ume-Sha Committee.

To artists

Dear artists and galleries, The Sixteenth Annual Huckleberry Harvest is August 13 at The Museum At Warm Springs.

Our live and silent auction of arts, crafts, and special premiums was one of the very first of its kind.

We would truly like you to participate in this year's Huckleberry Harvest Dinner and Auction by taking this opportunity to showcase your art.

You can help by donating an auction item, a new tangible item, gift certificate/card, or service.

You will receive promotions of your piece via the museum's website, Facebook, press releases and event program.

This is a chance to gain recognition as the highest selling piece of the evening after the event.

For thousands of years, tribes of the Warm Springs Indian Reservation have harvested huckleberries, a traditional and nutritional supplement to Native generations.

The Museum At Warm Springs is hosting an evening of fun, celebration, and networking in honor of the Huckleberry Harvest.

Other ways you can help the Museum at Warm Springs in serving the community through its mission:

Join us for the August 13 Huckleberry Harvest;

Make a cash donation, helping to underwrite auction expenses.

The museum is a 501c(3) nonprofit educational institution. Your showcased gift to the auction is tax-deductible, as allowed by law, and helps us to better serve the community and visitors.

You can ship or bring your contribution to:

The Museum At Warm Springs Attn: Jefferson Greene; P.O. Box 909 - 2189 Hwy 26, Warm Springs, OR 97761. For further information, please call the museum office 541-553-3331 or e-mail at:
