Girls team competes at Class of the Field tourney

Madras High School girls basketball players competed last week in the Twenty-Fourth Annual Class of the Field basketball tourney in Oregon City.

The Madras team made it to the semi-finals, after beating teams from Sheldon and then St. Mary's. They lost only to East Valley, which eventually won the tournament.

The Madras players were Kourtney Stacona, Mariah Stacona, Ashley Kaltsukis, Abby Scott, Inez Jones, Rosey Suppah and Raylene Jones.

Summer tourneys

Abby Scott will be competing this summer in several national NCAA sanctioned high school girls basketball tournaments throughout the U.S.

She plays for the nationally ranked Team Concept, coached by Mike Abraham of Portland. Tourneys will be played in Las Vegas, Nashville, and Chicago.

Youth football sign-ups

Registration for the 2011 Bend Park and Recreation District Youth Tackle Football program is currently being accepted online on Facebook.com.

The program is open to all youth entering grades 4-6 for the 2011-2012 school year. Teams will be forming in Madras. The registration fee is $ 110 per player. All protective equipment is provided. The program begins the week of August 22 and continues through October 23. Teams will practice in Madras and play games on Sunday afternoons mainly in Bend. For more information call the Bend Park and Recreation District office at 541-389-7275 or contact Carl Lindgren in Madras at 325-1396.

Group offers physical training

The Madras Physical Therapy Group will be hosting an eight-week training program focusing on running, biking and core strengthening for the Fourth Annual MAC Dash Sprint Triathlon/Duathlon, set for Sept. 10.

Rob Nelson and Trevor Groves, physical trainers, will be leading these training sessions. They will focus on providing technical expertise and clinical insight while promoting a fun and socially oriented approach accessible to all ability levels.

Morning and evening training sessions will be offered on weekdays and a full schedule will be presented at registration.

The program is free and registration will be on Tuesday, July 12 from 6-7 p.m. at Madras Physical Therapy Group, located in suite 200 of the South Y

Building, 910 South Highway 97. Refreshments will be served at registration.

Please call with any questions, 541-475-2571. Focus of the program will on the MAC Dash but anyone interested in biking, running or core training is invited to attend.

In addition, the Madras Aquatic Center will provide discounted punch cards and dedicate lap swimming lessons on Wednesdays from 7-8 p.m. to participants.

Treatment of athletes, orthopedic care, auto and job related injuries are some of the specialties at Madras Physical Therapy Group.

Physical trainers Nelson and Groves bring over 35 years clinical experience and focus on comprehensive, personal care in a relaxing environment.
