Deer Ridge powwow is later this month

Native American inmates at the Deer Ridge Correctional Facility will host the first powwow at the prison on Friday, Sept. 23.

The powwow, to be held in an outdoor area at the facility, will be from 8 a.m. till 3:30 p.m.

The inmates are inviting Warm Springs community members to come and share in event.

Dancers, drummers, elders, spiritual leaders and all others are welcome.

A person can attend if he or she has not been incarcerated and charged with a crime in the past five years.

Anyone wishing more information on how to attend the Deer Ridge powwow, call the facility at 541-325-5999. Chaplain Tim Woods is a contact person.

He can be reached by email at:

tim.n.woods@doc.state.or.us

Or call Michelle at Deer Ridge, 541-325-5684.

The inmates have made gifts to give away during the powwow, gifts such as hand-drumms, jewelry, drawings and beadswork.

At the powwow there will be traditional drumming and dancing, a salmon bake and barbecue.

There are about 30 Native American inmates serving time at Deer Ridge. There are four inmates who are from Warm Springs. Total inmate population is over 760, all minimum security. The medium security part of the prison has not yet opened. Deer Ridge is on 200 acres east of Madras.
