Louisville vs. Portland tickets available to youth

The Louisville Cardinals women's basketball team will play in Portland vs. the University of Portland Pilots on Saturday, Dec. 17.

The Cardinals feature Oregon Native American student athletes Shoni and Jude Schimmel.

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs have tickets available for tribal member students to attend this game. The tribes have 1,500 tickets available to students.

Listen to KWSO for details on how to pick up your tickets. The game is at 2 p.m. in the Chiles Center, Dec. 17.

During half-time of the game, the Warm Springs girls 12 and under basketball team Sacred Thunder will play Nixaawii of Umatilla.

National Museum internship open

The National Museum of the American Indian seeks applications for a one-year paid residency for entry-level Native American museum professionals interested in pursuing museum careers or those early in established careers who feel they would benefit from a residency at NMAI.

Applications for the first round are due by January 15.

Send applications to: Patricia Scott, Cultural Resources Center, 4220 Silver Hill Road, Suitland, MD 20746-2863. For queries email: David W. Penney, penneyd@si.edu
