

Scott at practice with Aggies

Madras High School graduate Abby Scott is beginning her freshman year at New Mexico State.

Scott is a guard on the Aggies women's basketball team.

New Mexico State opens its season on Nov. 2 with an exhibition against Fort Lewis. The game is at home in Las Cruces.

Their first regular season game is on Nov. 12 against Loyola Marymount, also at home.

The team will be in the Northwest region in February 2013 when they play Idaho and then Seattle.

One of Scott's coaches

Scott with Aggies assistant coach Aarika Hughes.

at NM State is Aarika Hughes, who also is from Oregon. Hughes played for Amateur Athletic Union Team Concept in Oregon, as did Scott. Abby, a 2012 MHS graduate, is the daughter of James Scott and Amy Miller.

Jones competes at Beautiful Brawlers

Kayla Jones of the Warm Springs Nation Boxing Team traveled to Pacifica, Calif., for the Beautiful Brawlers II event.

Jones was narrowly defeated in a three-round bout. "She put on a good show," said Warm Springs boxing coach Austin Smith.

Jones commented, "I fought hard but I could have done better. I think

Kayla Jones

I can beat that girl." She wishes to thank Warm Springs for being supportive of the boxing program on the reservation.

Kayla is scheduled to box at the Knott Street boxing show in Portland on Saturday, Sept.

The Beautiful Brawlers II event, on August 25, draw the West Coast's best amateur female boxers.

To bowlers about holiday tournament

Attention Warm Springs bowlers:

The Thirty-Sixth Annual Warm Springs Indian Holiday Bowling Tournament is just around the corner.

The tourney is Thursday-Saturday, Nov. 22-24.

The planning meetings are underway. As the committee plans the event, one consideration is always on the table, and we would like to offer that opportunity to any bowler family that might be interested.

It is difficult for us to lose family and friends, yet it is often a satisfying feeling as we honor their memory through memorials, including dedications to something that was significant in their life, in this case, bowling.

If there are any bowling families out there that would like to include any such honoring during our bowling tournament, or even dedications to a family bowler, please contact committee secretary Cena at 541-553-3243 before September 14. Thank you!

Sincerely,
The Warm Springs Indian Holiday Bowling Tournament Committee
