Unity, prayer gathering at longhouse

Everyone is invited to attend the community-wide unity and prayer gathering at the Agency Longhouse on Sunday, May 5, starting at 12 noon. Then on Monday, May 6, there will be a Unity Walk at noon from the Agency Longhouse to the administration building.

For the prayer gathering, please bring a pot-luck item. A special invitation to attend is extended to: Spiritual leaders, drummers, elders, moms, dads, uncles, aunts, children, youth, brothers, sisters, grandparents, Tribal Council, members, bosses, workers, our unemployed, our special needs folks, our people needing prayer or help. The events are organized by Annette Jim, Marcia Soliz, Myra Johnson, Toni Made, Shaneceta Yahtin and Winona Strong. "We believe things can get better with hope, prayer and unity. It's time to come together as a people, as a community, to pray, support and encourage one another, and the young. It's time to come together to help and generate community leadership for the good of all."

COCC summer term registration

Registration for summer term at Central Oregon Community College begins soon.

New degree or certificate seeking students who have completed the application for admission and taken the placement tests may begin registering online for summer-term classes beginning Wednesday, May 8.

Summer term begins Monday, June 24.

COCC's summer term offers many of the same classes that are offered during other quarters.

Classes offered during this summer term include Effective Job Search Strategies, College Success, Math, Writing, Manufacturing, Welding, Cascade Volcanoes and Music Fundamentals and Sand Volleyball.

Also, students who are home for the summer from a four-year school can take advantage of COCC's lower tuition.

Getting Started sessions are being offered at the Bend,

Madras, Prineville and Redmond campuses.

A COCC representative will help guide prospective students through the time-sensitive steps for enrollment. A schedule of the Getting Started sessions is available on the COCC website: www.cocc.edu.

For information, call 541-383-7500.

No late clinics Monday-Thursday

Warm Springs IHS has announced that there will be no late clinic Mondays thru Thursdays in May due to short staffing. The late clinic is usually 5-7 p.m.
