

Council greeting

Tribal elder Faye Waheneka congratulates her grandson Carlos Smith, who was among the new members to join the Tribal Council.

Many people showed up for the Council swearing-in and greeting. Cake (far right) was served afterward.

Event for veterans in June

The Peaceful Spirit Outing—Honoring our Wounded Warriors through Fly Fishing and Cultural Sharing is June 11-13 at Lower Dry Creek in Warm Springs.

Fishing guides, volunteers and donations are being sought. If you can help out, contact Casey Green at 541-325-2147.

Survivors invited to Relay luncheon Sunday

The Jefferson County Relay For Life will be held Saturday, July 13, and Sunday, July 14.

The event helps to raise funds to help support those fighting cancer.

Prior to the main event

the Jefferson County Relay For Life committee would like to invite all survivors and their caregivers to an afternoon of recognition, support, and a celebration of the many cancer survivors residing in Jefferson County.

This event will be held on Sunday, May 19, at 2 p.m. at the Madras Senior Center. A light luncheon, tea, and coffee for all attendees will be provided and there will be musical entertainment.

Weavers workshops

The Second Annual Weavers Teaching Weavers basketry workshops this year will be in Toppenish, Wash., June 27-28.

A discounted rate is available for those who pre-register by June 7. For more information, call Ethel Greene 208-843-7409.
