

Knock-out win at Invitational

Jasper Smith of Warm Springs won by second-round knockout last week at the ABC Invitational boxing tournament, held at the Sheraton Hotel in Portland.

In the bout, Smith defeated Shea Stokes, who is taller and ten pounds heavier than Smith.

The match was fast-paced from the opening, with the fighters exchanging many punches through the first round.

Then in the middle of the second round Smith landed a hard right cross, knocking Stokes to the mat, and out of the match.

Smith boxes for Warm Springs Nation Boxing, coached by Austin Smith Sr.

Warm Springs and other boxers will compete locally on Saturday, June 29, during Pi-Ume-Sha Boxing, hosted by Warm Springs Nation Boxing.

Tribal fishing rule changes

The Columbia River tribes made the following change to their spring fisheries, and the Columbia River Compact concurred:

Zone 6 Platform and Hook and Line Fishery

The tribes will allow commercial sales of Zone 6 platform and hook and line caught fish with the following rules, effective through 6 p.m. Wednesday, July 31, 2013. (Fall season rules beginning August 1 will be set later).

Area: All of Zone 6. Gear: hoopnets, dip nets, and hook and line. Previous gear restrictions are rescinded.

Allowable sales: Chinook, sockeye, steelhead, shad, walleye, carp, catfish, bass, and yellow perch may be sold or kept for subsistence. For only the period from present to 11:59 p.m., June 15, sturgeon between 43-54 inches fork length harvested in The Dalles pool downstream of the grain elevator at Rufus may be sold or kept for subsistence.

At other times and in other areas, sturgeon between 43-54 inches fork length in The Dalles and John Day pools may be retained only for subsistence use.

Sturgeon between 38-54 inches fork length in the Bonneville Pool may also be retained only for subsistence use.

Misc. rules: Sanctuaries for these gear types are in effect.

Note: The sturgeon setline fishery in The Dalles pool continues through June 15 under rules set previously.

Summer Season commercial gillnet regulations will be announced this week.

Tributary fishing regulations are un-changed by this action. For current information regarding tributary fishing regulations, please contact tribal fisheries departments directly.

If you have any fishing enforcement problems or need assistance or information, day or night, contact the Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fisheries Enforcement Office, 4270 Westcliff Drive, Hood River.

Phone 541-386-6363 or toll-free 800-487-FISH (3474). Please consult your tribal Fisheries Department for additional details on tribal regulations. Please wear your life jackets for safety and avoid overloaded boats.

Teams compete at Boomer Classic

A great time was had by all at the Boomer Classic golf tournament at Kah-Nee-Ta Resort's beautiful Golf Course, May 18.

The overcast skies did not dampen the spirits of the golfers or museum staff members.

Coming in first place was the team of the Warm Springs Economic Development Corporation:

Owen Danzuka Sr., Owen Danzuka Jr., Rodney Adams and Rodney Katchia.

Second place winners were from Orrick Team 2: Greg Blonde, Lynn Johnson, Lee Helgerson and Charles Jackson.

Third place was the team from Orrick Team 1: Douglas Goe, J.P. Patt, Louie Pitt and Jim Keller.

The tournament also included teams PGE, Warm Springs Power and Water Enterprises, Warm Springs Telecom, and Karnopp Peterson LLP.

The museum staff wishes to thank all teams for coming to play, and supporting the museum.

"We would also like to thank Kah-Nee-Ta golf pro Joe Rauschenburg and his team for hosting our event, helping to plan the tournament and advise us on sidegames and the numerous details of running a tournament. Thanks, Joe!

"We'd like to thank Orrick Herrington & Sutcliffe LLP, for sponsoring the tournament. And thank you to Warm Springs GeoVisions for sponsoring the boxed lunches."
