Update from the Fishing Hotline

Platform and hook and line

Platform and hook and line fishing in Zone 6 has re-opened to seven days per week effective as of earlier this month. The open area is all of Zone 6.

Allowable gear is hoopnets, dipnets and hook and line.

Harvest is allowed for subsistence purposes or commercial sales.

Allowed species are chinook, sockeye, steelhead, shad, walleye, carp, catfish, bass and yellow perch. Sanctuaries applicable to these gear types apply.

Fish harvested during the open period may be sold after the end of the open period as long as they were caught during the open period.

Fishing below Bonneville Dam

The change to the fishery has been rescinded. Effective as of earlier this month, this fishery is now open Sunday to Wednesday for Warm Springs tribal members.

The open area is both sides of the Columbia River for 4 miles downstream of Bonneville Dam.

Allowed gear is hook and line and one pole per person.

Allowed sales or subsistence catch is salmon, steelhead, shad, yellow perch, bass, walleye, catfish and carp. Sturgeon may not be kept for subsistence or commercial sales.

Sales may not occur on Corps of Engineers property.

Please see the Branch of Natural Resources and Tribal Council Office for more detailed regulations.

Commercial Fishing in Zone 6

The fourth gillnet period for summer chinook and sockeye opened July 8 and closes at 6 p.m. this Thursday, July 11 for a total of 3.5 days.

The open area is all of Zone 6.

Gear is restricted to 7-inch mesh or larger. Allowable sales are chinook, sockeye, steelhead, shad, walleye, carp, catfish, bass, and yellow perch. These fish may be sold or kept for subsistence purposes. Sturgeon may only be kept for subsistence use. Legal-size sturgeon are between 38 and 54 inches fork length in the Bonneville Pool and between 43 and 54 inches fork length in The Dalles and John Day pools.

River mouth and dam sanctuaries applicable to gill nets are in effect for this fishery. The Spring Creek National Fish Hatchery sanctuary is not in effect for summer season fisheries. Sales of fish caught during the open period are allowed after the end of the open period as long as they were landed during the open period.
