Week of awareness with Prevention team

The Warm Springs Meth-Suicide Prevention team in October hosted Red Ribbon Week, with the theme, "Love Yourself, Be Drug-Free."

"We hope this year is the first of many collaborative efforts to prevent drug use among our tribal youth and families," said Sarah Wolfe, program coordinator.

The week started with the Great Pumpkin Party kick-off presentation at the Community Center.

There was a blessing by Jefferson Greene, and guest speaker was Radine Johnson.

There were 26 youth who participated in the awareness walk. This was followed by a meth prevention/education DVD presentation.

The Plant A Promise event at the Recreation garden included 35 planting, and promises to be drug-free.
