Meet school board candidates

The Madras Juntos student group is hosting a Community Dialogue on Monday, April 6, from 4:30 to 6 p.m. at the Madras High School Library.

The candidates for the positions on the Jefferson County 509-J school district board are invited to attend. This will be a chance for the parents and students to meet the candidates, and discuss the issues facing the schools of the 509-J district.

Springs; and Gustavo Rico and Courtney Snead, of Madras, are challenging Brad Holliday of Madras, the incumbent.

Foster Kalama of Warm Springs; and Sara Puddy of Madras, are challenging Stan Sullivan of Madras, incumbent.

School board candidates have been invited to come and meet stakeholders, and discuss their views on education. Teachers and students are welcome to attend. Posole will be served.

Regarding ballots

Ballots will be mailed April 30. If you have moved or changed your mailing address, please contact the county clerk to update your address and get your ballot.

Ballots are not forwarded to new addresses, and are returned to the clerk's office if the address is not current.

If you do not receive your ballot by May 8, contact the clerk's office to see if it has been returned.

In the May 19 Jefferson County Special District Election, a total of 62 candidates have filed to be on the ballot.

Other boards that are subject to the election are the Culver School District, the Jefferson County Education Service District, the Ashwood School District, the Black Butte-Camp Sherman School District; the Jefferson County Rural Fire Protection District, the hospital district, Madras Aquatic Center board, and others.

Designation of the park at smoke-free could lead to funding for park improvements, said Tobacco Prevention Coordinator Scott Kalama.
