

Kah-Nee-Ta to host Fight Night

Kah-Nee-Ta Resort will host Fight Night on May 2, a chance to see the Mayweather-Pacquiao fight. Floyd Mayweather, Jr. vs. Manny Pacquiao is billed as the Fight of the Century. The show at Kah-Nee-Ta begins at 6 p.m. on May 2. There is a $10 cover charge.

The match is between eight-division world champion Manny Pacquiao and undefeated, 5-division world champion Floyd Mayweather, Jr.

Despite predictions that Mayweather-Pacquiao would be the highest grossing fight in history as early as 2009, disagreements between the two boxers' camps on terms for the fight prevented the bout from coming to fruition until this year.

However, negotiations for the superfight are now finalized, with all of the major issues that have prevented the fight from happening in the past now resolved, including purse split, drug testing, and location of the bout.

You can reach Kah-Nee-Ta at 541-553-1112.

Pageant: raising funds for trip

"I've been getting my props ready, working on yarn baskets, practicing what I'm going to say during my talent presentation and looking into the mirror talking to myself to get rid of my nervousness so I'll be ready for the interview," shared Suzanne during a recent interview.

Established in 1984, the Miss Indian World program is the largest and most prestigious cultural pageants for Native American women. Contestants are judged in a number of categories, including public speaking, a personal interview, traditional presentation, dancing and an essay.

Suzanne's mother will be traveling with her as her chaperone to New Mexico.

"I've never been to Gathering of Nations, so this will be a new experience for me," Suzanne said.

As a contestant for Miss Indian World, Suzanne is selling raffle tickets for $2.50. They can be purchased through April 20 from Fay Anguiano at Natural Resources, Christina Culps at Indian Head Casino and Lawren Slockish at Tribal Court.
