

Celebrating Head Start 50 Year anniversary

The Warm Springs Head Start Fifty Year Anniversary celebration is coming up on Monday, August 31. The all-day celebration will be at the community center.

Warm Springs Head Start started in the summer of 1965, and is one of the original members of the national program.

The August 31 event is a way to say thank-you to all the families and staff who help make Warm Springs Head Start a great experience for the students.

All current and former employees, former and current students and their families are invited, said Kirstin Hisatake, program director.

There will be a guest speaker, Mitch Factor, Head Start teacher and motivational speaker. There will be lunch, games and more.
