Aspirations planning for fall time

The first day of fall is coming up next week, on September 23.

Native Aspirations and Prevention, of the tribal Health and Human Services Branch, is planning for Halloween time.

This year Native Aspirations will join Warm Springs Recreation for Trunk-or-Treat, which last year proved to be a popular event for young people, and the Halloween Carnival.

And it's not too early to start planning for Christmas, as the arts and crafts supplies have to be ordered soon, said Caroline Cruz, tribal Health Liaison. In another development at Native Aspirations:

Plans are moving forward to keep the summer youth work program funded for the next three years, Caroline said.
