I was born and raised in Warm Springs. I have been blessed to be taught by so many of our elders and understand our heritage and the fight we are in to keep it alive.

Dear People of Warm Springs:

Hello, my name is Kayla Desirae Casey, and I'm 27 years old. My Great Grandmother was Jeanette Bruno, my Grandmother is Lupe (Garcia) Samuels, and my mother is Roxanne Jeanette Langnese-Chinook.

My sisters are Kira Langnese-Cook, and Jenaea Langnese-Frye. I lived with my mother Roxanne and my sister Kira on my reservation since I just turned 2 years old. My mother relapsed in 1997, and I was forced to live with my father in Idaho. My mother won custody back of me in 2001, and I have lived in Bellingham, Wash., ever since.

I graduated from Warm Springs Head Start, Early Childhood Education, and attended Warm Springs Elementary. I want to be a Warm Springs Tribal Member because I am very proud and identify with my Warm Springs/Wasco heritage, and memories of growing up here.

I am an artist like my mother, grandmother and great grandmother. In 1996, my sister Jenny Langnese and my cousins Eric and Tama Langnese were adopted in and became tribal members.

My sister Kira and I missed being adopted in only by a handful of votes. It was a very sad time. However, I hope you will please vote for me and my sister, and all of us that are eligible for adoption.

It will be an honor to say I am a member of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Indian Reservation. Thank you for your time and consideration. Sincerely,

Kayla D. Casey (Langnese)

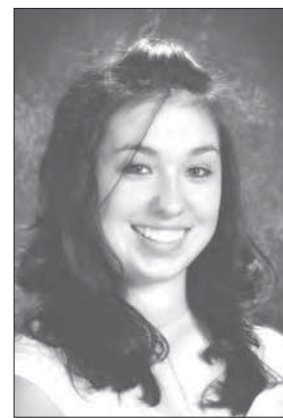

My name is Debra Lee Rhoan Aguirre-Shank. I am 33 years and the mother of three young children. I am the oldest daughter to Kerry Dean Rhoan, who is a member of the Warm Springs Tribes. I am writing this letter in regard to the adoption. It is an honor to be considered for adoption into the tribe. My father has always talked about how wonderful it is to be a tribal member and carrying on our Indian heritage. I have always wanted to be a member of the Warm Springs Reservation since I was a small child. It is important for me to carry on the history and knowledge of my Indian heritage to my children. Historically and traditionally, tribal adoption has been practiced giving more insight to tribal customs and ceremonies. I am excited to be a part of it. I have been to the reservation to visit family and experience traditional ceremonies. These are memories I hold dear. Thank you for taking the time to hear my story, and I am blessed to be Warm Springs Indian. Sincerely, Debra L. Rhoan Aguirre-Shank.

Hi, My name is Evangeline Trimble-Hood, the daughter of Darlene Trimble and Brad Hood. I am a Wasco/Warm Springs tribal member descendant, and want to be enrolled. My mother is a tribal member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. My grandmother, Evangeline Trimble, who is known for her beautiful beadwork, is also a tribal member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. My grandfather is a tribal member of the Yurok Tribe in Hoopa, Calif.

term because I am currently pregnant. After the baby is born, I'll be going back to college to finish my education. I'll be majoring in Sports Management at COCC. I enjoy playing volleyball and softball. Mostly softball! I also enjoy seeing all the beautiful dresses and beadwork, and the smell of fry bread.

I look forward to being a tribal member of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, because I will be federally recognized. Thank you.

Evangeline Trimble-Hood.

My father Brad Hood is the son of James and Susan Hood. My father's side of the family is not Native. My father had raised me and made sure my culture was still in my life.

I'm a 2010 Culver High School graduate. I attended Southwestern Oregon Community College in Coos Bay. I studied athletic training. I only did one

I truly desire for my kids to become members. They are proud of their heritage and want to be able to do more with their lives, if they become members. Thank you for your caring consideration at the voting. Sincerely, Kerry Rhoan (son of Gordon Rhoan, grandson of Lizie Amiel.

My name is Kristin Nicole Rhoan Perales. I am 34 years old. I live in Nampa, Idaho, and work full time at one of our local high schools. I am married and have three children—two boys, Mikel, 16, and Marcos, 9; and a daughter, Graicien, 5. My father is Kelly Gene Rhoan. All my life, my father has taught and instilled in me great respect for our Native American heritage. I have always been very proud of who I am and where my ancestors came from. Now, in turn I teach these values to my children. I would be so honored to be adopted into the Warm Springs Tribe. This has been a desire of mine since I was a very small girl, and feel just a strong about it today. I am active in my church and community, and know I would be a great addition to the tribe. I hope you will consider me for adoption. I would be so honored to be a member and represent the tribe of the Warm Springs Reservation.

Thank you for your consideration.

Kristin Rhoan Perales.

Krystian Yam-McGill, date of birth March 30, 2011.

I am writing this letter to say why I would want to be enrolled with the Warm Springs Tribe. The answer is simple, for a sense of belonging to my heritage. My father Kelly Rhoan has always raised me to be proud of my heritage and where my family came from. From a very young age I was made aware of where my father and the rest of the family are from, also being fortunate enough to visit with aunts and uncles and other family members as a child and also as an adult. I am very proud of my Native American background and would be honored to be adopted into the tribe, to be able to not only have honor in knowing what my heritage is, but to have a sense of ownership and pride in knowing that I am part of it. Thank you so much. Brooke Rhoan-Soshea.
