

Eclipse program at W.S. Academy

The Warm Springs Academy will host a visit next week from NASA, the Lowell Observatory and OMSI. The focus will be on the total eclipse, happening on the reservation and in the region on August 21. The science visit at the Academy will be on Tuesday, May 16, starting with a dinner at 5:30 p.m. Next will be eclipse presentations by NASA and the Lowell Observatory scientists. The OMSI Planetarium will be on site, open for people to visit. This is free to the public. There will be a second community event at the Madras Performing Arts Center on Thursday, May 18. This will begin at 6 p.m. in the auditorium with a presentation by W. Dean Pesnell of the NASA Goddard Space Flight Center. These events are free. Meanwhile, there is an eclipse information meeting this Wednesday, May 10, starting at 5:30 p.m. at the Community Center Social Hall. See page 4 for details.

Over time Indian Head Casino finds itself with a large collection of returnable cans. Casino management realized a perfect solution, as to the best use of the returnables: A sizeable donation to the Warm Springs Boys & Girls Club, helping the non-profit organization with operating expenses. The casino team last week delivered the cans to the club (left), where they were greatly appreciated.

Summer youth program

Health and Human Services Native Aspirations Soaring for the Future work program is getting ready for summer. This is a chance for youth ages 14 to the college level to gain work experience with the Confederated Tribes. Native Aspirations has placed many youth with employer-mentors and supervisors, but there remain opportunities for prospective supervisors. To these potential employers: If you are interested in participating in the program, helping a youth gain job experience through summer employment, then please contact Buffy Hurtado, Native Aspirations Soaring for the Future, 541-615-0141. Or stop by the Family Resource Center.

Club orientation, fundraiser

Parent orientations for the Boys & Girls Club is scheduled for Monday, May 15 and Wednesday, May 17. The orientations are from noon to 1 p.m., with lunch provided. Parents are required to attend one of these sessions. If you cannot make either of these two days, you will have the opportunity to do so on June 5, as well as on the June 7. Meanwhile, the Boys & Girls Club is preparing for their annual fundraiser, set for May 23 at Kah-Nee-Ta. There will be a dinner and auction. You can reach the club at 541-553-2323.
