

NAMA: second in two years for W.S. community

This was the second Native American Music Award, or Nammy, for Warm Springs in the past two years: Scott 'Blue Flamez' Kalama won the 2016 Nammy for his rap music video Rez Life.

Scotty is now working on a new album with James performing on about half of the tracks. As they both have Nammys, the goal now is to keep going and qualify for a Grammy in the World category, or maybe Song of the Year at the 2018 Nammys.

James and Scott traveled to 2017 awards ceremony together, with Ibori Records recording engineer Chaz Mortimer.

James Edmund Greeley and Scotty 'Blue Flamez' Kalama with Nammys.

The awards were held in the Events Center of the Seneca Niagra Resort and Casino, Niagara Falls, New York.

While there, James and Scott met many of the artists, including Mickie James, WWE and music performer, who was inducted into the NAMA Hall of Fame.

James performed at the Events Center, and then they visited Niagara Falls, where James recorded flute songs with the falls as background.

And then they flew back to Oregon with the second Native American Music Award for the Warm Springs community

Spooky Nite Out, powwow

The Spooky Indian Nite Out and Drummerz Jam Session is this Wednesday evening, October 25 at the Warm Springs Community Center.

Presented by the Community Wellness Center and Recreation Department, the potluck dinner will be at 6 p.m. and the powwow at 7.

There will be a Clown Dance contest—Bring your clown outfits.

Visit haunted house on Halloween

Warm Springs Fire Management will host the annual Haunted House at the Fire Management warehouse.

The Haunted House has become a popular Warm Springs tradition. Five hundred people went last year.

Fire Management is still interested in bringing in more volunteers. If you are interested, call Jabbar Davis or William Wilson at Fire Management, 541-553-1146. The Warm Springs Prevention Team can also be used as a point of contact, 541-553-3205.

Reading of the Names fundraiser

Tamera Coffee has been selected to take part in the Reading of Names at the Vietnam Memorial in Washington, D.C. this Veterans Day. Friends and family are holding a raffle fundraiser to help with her travel expenses. Tickets may be purchased from Tamera Coffee, Amanda Coffee, or Bernadette and Zack Chambers.

Pinktober Celebration at casino

Indian Head Casino is hosting a slot tournament this Thursday evening, October 26, to benefit Relay for Life. The tournament begins at 6 p.m.

Then on Friday, October 27, is the Pinktober Celebration at the casino. Indian Head will host a Cancer Awareness Poker Walk. Gift cards of to the top three finishers, $100, $75 and $50. There will be light snacks, door prizes, a balloon release and healthy screening option.

CPS, ECE accepting treats

Donations of Halloween treats are being accepted at Children's Protective Services, and the Early Childhood Education center.

Non-candy treats are best, and nothing containing peanuts due to allergies. Items can be dropped off between now and Halloween at the CPS and ECE offices.

The Warm Springs Child Health Task Force is encouraging the community to consider non-candy treats this year as way to reduce sugar consumption, and to help kids develop healthy habits.
