Whereas Ordinance 68 of pursuant to Article V Section 1(l) enacted authority for “the protections, preservation and encouragement of tribal and Indian history, culture and tradition, and found it necessary to insure the survival of the Confederated Tribes, which provides the foundation for the continuance of the Tribes as a distinct political and cultural entity perpetually adopted July 29, 1987; and,

Whereas the Twenty-Seventh Tribal Council adopted Resolution 12,195 directing the entire tribal organization to support its priorities including: Cultural education and language revitalization efforts; and,

Whereas Kiksht, the language of the Wasco people, Ichishkin, the language of the Ichishkin Snwit Lma (aka Warm Springs and/or Sahaptin people), and Numu, the language of the Northern Paiute people, are the heritage languages of the three tribes of the Warm Springs Indian Reservation; and,

Whereas the tribe recognizes that the languages—Kiksht, Ichishkin and Numu—are vital and deserve recognition of official traditional languages of the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs; now therefore,
