Fourth Sacred Thunder basketball clinic

The Fourth Annual Sacred Thunder basketball clinic hosted 109 young players, grades four through 12.

Youth from Warm Springs, Madras and Culver, and as far away as Nisqually and Swinomish, attended.

Two basketball trainers were brought in to show the youth new and trending techniques in basketball. Daniel Shaw, of Hoop Diaries, is based out of Portland, and Collin Castellaw, of Shot Mechanics, is based out of Eagle, Idaho.

Both have years of experience training elite athletes from the high school level up to professionals, domestically and internationally.

The youth had fun and learned more than basketball. The coaches shared the importance of discipline, hard work, dedication, teamwork and encouraging others no matter what. The clinic would like to thank our sponsors:

Identity Zone, Indian Head Casino, Warm Springs Power Enterprise, Brightwood Corporation, Warm Springs Composite Products, Kah-Nee-Ta Resort and Spa, the Warm Springs Credit Enterprise and private donors.

Thank you for your support. It was a great weekend of Basketball. Shawn Harry
