Anniversary year at Museum

You can see exceptional artwork by Warm Springs youth at the museum through March 3.

The Museum at Warm Springs this year is celebrating its Twenty-Fifth Anniversary. There are some unique events—a Treaty of 1855 exhibit, for instance—coming up in 2018 at the museum. Some events on the calendar:

March 12: A Washt Service at 10 a.m.

March 17: Warm Springs community celebration of the anniversary. The museum opened in March of 1993. The exhibit Twanat: Celebrating Our Legacy opens.

April 14: Honor Dinner at the World Forestry Center. Presentation of the Twanat and Lifetime Achievement awards.

May 31: Seeds of Discovery science field day for local fourth graders, supported by an Oregon State University and NASA.

June 7: Opening of the reception hall exhibit Patriot Nations, a banner exhibit from the National Museum of the American Indian.

June 21: Opening of the exhibit Memory of the Land: The Treaty of the Middle Columbia River Tribes and Bands.

August 18: Huckleberry Harvest annual banquet and auction.

October 1: Opening, Middle Oregon Treaty of 1855 display.

October 25-27: Treaty symposium At Kah-Nee-Ta Resort.

November: Tribal Member Art Exhibit; and Native American Art Market.

Baby Fair

Warm Springs Recreation invites you to the Sweetheart Baby Fair from 5-7 p.m. on Thursday, February 22. There will be a family photo shoot and door prizes.

Join us at the Community Wellness Center Social Hall for a light dinner at 5 p.m. Enter your little one in the Crawler Race. Then sport your child's regalia across the stage for your walker to 5 years old.

Check out the baby board gallery and learn new information regarding issues facing our little ones and their families.

Michael Martinez from Prevention will provide information on the use of methamphetamine during pregnancy and the effects on newborns, infants and their environment.

For more information call Carol Sahme at 541-553-3243, or visit Recreation at the Community Center.
