

Twenty-Five Years at Museum

The Museum at Warm Springs in March celebrated its Silver Anniversary, marking 25 years of preserving and celebrating tribal art and culture.

The celebration day featured tribal dancers and drummers, and the opening of a new exhibit, Twanat ~ Celebrating Our Legacy.

The exhibit includes rare items from the museum's permanent collection, and will be on display through late May. This unique exhibit displays archival images, capturing the tribal way of life.

Artifact objects will include clothing, beaded accessories, basketry and more.

In April the museum will host its annual Honor Dinner. The dinner and awards ceremony will be on April 14 at the World Forestry Center in Portland. The museum will be presenting the Twanat Award to former Museum at Warm Springs executive director Michael Hammond.

Kah-Nee-Ta seeks members for 2018 cultural activities

Kah-Nee-Ta Resort and Spa will host a meeting for Kah-Nee-Ta Salmon Bake dancers and cooks, craft instructors and story tellers.

This is a chance to discuss the schedule for the 2018 Kah-Nee-Ta cultural events. The resort is asking tribal members interested in participating in storytelling, cultural crafts or salmon bakes to attend the meeting.

If you are unable to attend, please call the Convention services office to pick up the required paperwork. The paperwork must be completed for vendors. Call 541-553-1112 ext. 3436.

The meeting—at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 14 in the Kah-Nee-Ta Council Room—is open to all members who are interested in discussing the 2018 season. This is also a sign-up time for artists.

In order to be on the 2018 Cultural roster, individuals must attend the meeting or schedule and appointment with the Kah-Nee-Ta Catering department. All paperwork is due by May 12.

For information please call Janaiya Rowe at 541-553-1112 ext. 3482.

Downtown planning meeting

Tribal Planning will host the second Downtown planning meeting this Wednesday evening, March 28, from 4 to 6 p.m. at the gymnasium of the former elementary school.

Planning invites all community members to attend and provide input on future plans.

The goal is to finalize a development plan for this area by the end of summer.

This plan will then be used to seek funding and investment to make the plan a reality.

The first first meeting, held in February 20, provided attendees with an opportunity to learn about previous planning efforts for the downtown area.

Planning and the Warm Springs Community Action Team also talked about the WSCAT Old Commissary small business development project.

For those who were unable to attend, previous downtown planning documents include the Warm Springs Town Center: Property Summary, from 2012; and the Warm Springs Downtown Development Plan of 2005. These can be found on the Tribal Member Portal: warmsprings.mc/

Check under 'Documents -- Reports'

Everyone is invited to participate in this process by attending planning meetings, or by submitting comments to tribal staff via email: publicrelations@wstribes.org

For additional meeting information, please contact Lonny Macy at: lonny.macy@wstribes.org

Planning efforts are supported with funding from a USDA Rural Business Development grant.

Free child's car seat at April event

Is your child in the safest car seat? Stop by and find out a free car set check up, coming up in April.

The program Native CARS—Children Always Ride Safe—will provide free seats, based on need. The seats will be available only during this event—Don't miss out.

The free car set check up will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Wednesday, April 25 in the parking lot between the Early Childhood Education Center and the Agency Longhouse.

Priority will be given to those who schedule an appointment with Candice Jimenez at the Northwest Portland Area Indian Health Board. You can reach her at 503-416-3264; or email: cjimenez@npaihb.org

Drop-ins will be available as time allows. Children need not be present for the car seat check.

The event is sponsored by the Indian Leadership for Indian Health, Native CARS, and the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs.

Ichishkín: book sales help next year's project

The students, working in pairs, used their imaginations to come up with the colorful drawings that illustrate each of the phrases.

Conversation in Ichishkín includes a glossary with a vocabulary and some grammar. Making the drawings, and learning the words in Ichishkín were the best parts of working on the books, the students say.

With the public release of the book this month, you can now buy a copy for $20, all proceeds going back to the fourth-graders; so they can make a similar book next year.

Books from last year's project—the first in the series, about Legends—are also available at the Academy.

As the students say: 'Páiyu mátsab kwatanáwa!' (Very much to all of you, Thank you!)
