

KNT: A Fond Farewell

The tribes will continue to explore the possibility of working with an outside partner-investor to re-open Kah-Nee-Ta, said Jim Manion, former board member.

In late July, the board and management, as a last proposal before the 'mothball' option, presented Council with some final ideas.

These included allowing heli-skiing on Mt. Jefferson for resort guests. Other suggestions were multi-day lodge-based fishing trips along the Deschutes River, trophy game hunting, and the development of a culture and wellness center.

There were drawbacks,

though, including the need for a new loan to Kah-Nee-Ta in order to stay open.

Council eventually voted 3-0-5 to implement the mothball option.
