

Repatriation at the Columbia River

Council approves Sandy smelt season

Tribal Council has approved regulations regarding smelt harvest in the Sandy River, resolution 12,582. Harvest may take place in the Sandy seven days per week from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. This is a subsistence fishery and there is a tribal limit of 1,800 pounds but no individual limit. Sales are not allowed.

Gear is limited to dipnets and the nets must be attended continuously. The Branch of Natural Resources will have creel technicians to check your harvest, if you are not checked you are required to report your catch to the harvest manager within 24 hrs, the phone number is 541-460-0272.

Tribal members must have their enrollment cards on their person while fishing. If asked you must allow your catch to be inspected by federal, state or tribal officers.
