Schools: innovations during Distance Learning

The service is to help students during the Comprehensive Distance Learning time, before the students and teachers can return to the classrooms, though some version could extend through the year. Students can register for online tutoring by calling 541-475-0388; or see the website: bit.ly/3iAmyVe

Hours of operation of the Twenty-First Century Learning Center tutoring service are Monday through Thursday, 3:30 to 7 p.m. Another innovation—out of necessity yet intriguing—is the Twenty-First Century Learning Center Virtual Study Hall. Drop-in times are Monday through Thursday, 3:30 to 7 p.m.

This is on-line via

Google Meet, free to all district students, all grade levels and subject areas. Teachers area also available. Sign-up by calling 541-475-0388; or see the website bit.ly/3iAmy

The Dinner Program for Distance Learning provides meal kits—ingredients and directions—A fun new way to have dinner with your family. More electives are coming up October 12.

Pick-up sites, times
