Jacques Paul Martinez - Fam-Wha-Tuuxx
~ May 2, 1973 - August 10, 2020

Jacques Paul Martinez passed away on August 10, 2020 at Spring Valley Hospital Medical Center, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Jacques was born in Bend to Urbana Ross and Danny Martinez on May 2, 1973.

Jacques lived most of his life in Warm Springs before moving to Las Vegas. He was an enrolled member of the Warm Springs Confederated Tribes, and when he was home in Oregon, Jacques often went to the Columbia River and Sherars Bridge to exercise his 1855 Treaty fishing rights.

Like his brothers, Jacques was a fire-fighter, a member of the Warm Springs Hot Shots and other fire crews in Central Oregon.

He attended Warm Springs grade school and Madras junior high and Madras High School, where he graduated in 1991. While in high school Jacques was active in football, wrestling and baseball. Jacques was also active in student government. He was class president in his Senior year.

Jacques was a good student, and was named to the honor roll many times. Jacques was preceded in death by his mother Urbana (Toto) Ross, and his older brother Joel Martinez.

Jacques is survived by his father Danny Martinez of Warm Springs, younger brother Joseph Martinez of Warm Springs, and younger sisters Monet Martinez of Eugene; Demitra McCabe of Salinas, California; grandmother Arlene Boileau of Warm Springs, and numerous nieces, nephews and great nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends and family.

Jacques had the most calm and reserved disposition, always positive and finding the positive in a negative situation. He never talked bad about anyone, always finding the good in every person he knew.

While living in Las Vegas he worked in landscaping and construction, but he lived there because he loved the "bright lights and action" that only Las Vegas can provide.

He spent his spare time doing the things he loved, like playing poker and placing bets on all sports. He was always the life of the black jack, roulette, poker and craps tables, making people laugh and truly enjoy the game.

His inviting and jovial personality won him new friends, even the new friends who ended up giving him all their chips.

Jacques truly lived his life to the fullest and he is and will always be loved, remembered and missed. May he rest in peace.

Thank you to all of Jacques's family and friends for all your love and support, and special thanks to the following: Thank you to Danny, Leroy, Joseph and Dominica, for driving down to Las Vegas and bringing Jacques home. Thank you to Warm Springs Fire Management and the Hot Shots for leading the way to the cemetery; Jabbar, for your much needed help; Joe and Joseph for always being there for our family; Father Victor for your services, rosary and blessing over Jacques; Jefferson for your heart felt songs, prayers and officiating and for reaching out and always helping our family; Vital Statistics, Olivia, Lucille and Rianna for your time, hard work and compassion and, finally, the drummers. Thank you to all of Jacques's family, for all your love and support and helping Jacques on his Journey. He will always be missed. Jacques is at Peace and his Soul is at rest and he is forever Loved!
