

Warm Springs Telecom reported last weekend that an unknown vehicle struck and took down the Warm Springs fiber optic cable near the four-way intersection by the Community Center, at Hollywood Boulevard and Tenino Road. This also led to an electrical outage for Pacific Power and Light customers. Anyone who witnessed the accident is asked to contact Warm Springs Police, 541-553-1171. The fiber-optic cable is the internet connection for the tribal organization; so the system was down for all the offices this week. The event also impacted the Warm Springs Academy, and customers off of Pelton dam. Phone systems were affected: Phones were down at the Indian Health Service clinic, so the health workers were using designated cell phone numbers on a temporary basis. Medical is 541-675- 5285; Dental 541-777-7482. Optometry 541-777-7482. Pharmacy 541-675-5400. WIC 541-675-5379. At left: The fiber optic cable was lying on the ground following the incident, though a crew later hung the wire up for safety.
