Estate plans free to members

On the Warm Springs Reservation - June 23 to July 5, 2022

Attorney Roberta Armstrong, of the Stewards of Indigenous Resources Endowment, will be in Warm Springs for the next few weeks, helping tribal members with estate planning.

The service is free to tribal members, and is of increasing importance, because of recent federal legislation, the American Indian Probate Reform Act.

The goal of SIRE, Armstrong says, "is to keep tribal land in tribal members' hands."

"Because of a change in federal law governing the disposition of property following a tribal member's passing, having a will has taken on greater importance," said Armstrong.

The law, AIPRA, dictates how property will be distributed following the passing of a tribal member who does not have a will.

"The way to avoid the situation, and control the distribution of the estate, is to have a will," said Armstrong.

Armstrong has her office at the Land Services Office. She and her Scribes will be in Warm Springs until July 5th.

To contact Armstrong, call 866-639-5550 or email Roberta@IndianWillsOnWheels.org.

Individuals who schedule appointments with Armstrong will complete an authorization form for her to obtain the following information prior to the scheduled appointment.

1. A report of Individual Trust Interests that lists all trust land ownership interests for that individual;

2. A current Individual Indian Monies account statement.

Warm Springs hosting Salmon Camp

After nearly two years of not holding the summer Salmon Camp, due to covid, the Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fish Commission is happy to announce the camp is returning.

Salmon Camp 2022 will be Monday through Friday, August 22-26 at Camp Namanu in Sandy.

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs are hosting the camp this year.

If your student wants to learn about the science of salmon, know more about the tribal salmon culture or help with a stream restoration project, Salmon camp is the place to do it.

Five students from each CRITFC member tribe will be selected entering grades six through eight.

Salmon camp is free; however, space is limited and the participants are selected through an application process.

Applications must be received by this Friday, June 17. All meals and lodging are included and a stipend will be provided upon successful completion of the program. See the site:
