NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Central Oregon Community College is commemorating Native American Heritage Month with free community events throughout November. Programming will include a three-part virtual book conversation of the novel "There There" by Tommy Orange, Pulitzer Prize finalist and PEN/Hemingway award winner, free tickets to The Museum at Warm Springs, and in-person, powwow-dance-influenced yoga sessions at the Bend and Madras campuses.

Visit cocc.edu to learn more.

In advance of College events, persons needing accommodation or transportation because of a physical or mobility disability should contact Caitlyn Gardner at 541.383.7237. For accommodation because of other disability such as hearing impairment, contact Disability Services at 541.383.7583.
