 presented by
Three Sisters Historical Society

— Tuesday, February 21 —
Cultural Stories & Artistry of a Native American

Aurolyn Stwyer of Warm Springs will be sharing her deep knowledge of the cultural heritage of her Cello ancestry. She is a business and community leader known for teaching, lecturing, mentoring, and volunteering. She is an accomplished artist — including bead work, textiles, jewelry, and dance — and will be incorporating many of these talents to bring us an exciting evening!

— Tuesday, March 28 —
An Insider's View of Local Logging, Lumber & Milling

Jim Crowell, a Bend resident since 1940 and a longtime employee of Brooks-Scanlon (from summer help in his college days to top-level management later, including with Brooks Resources as they developed the concept and execution of Black Butte Ranch) will share his perspectives on the origin, growth, and impact of this vital industry on Central Oregon for more than a century.

— Tuesday, April 25 —
If the Trees Could Speak: Stories of Camp Sherman

Ever wonder how the community got its name? Who started the Camp Sherman Store? When the first Metolius River cabins were built and by whom? Or where to find the golf course, old dairy, or Camp Sisters? Lorie Hancock of the Camp Sherman Historical Society will answer these questions and more, plus share interesting stories about the history of this special area.

Presentations at 7 p.m., doors open at 6 p.m. • Seating is first-come, first-served
 FivePine Conference Center • 1021 E. Desperado Trail, Sisters

Reservations can be made at 541-610-6323
