

Education wins Decorating Contest

The Education branch employees celebrated their first-place victory in the recent Recreation Valentine's Day Office Decorating Contest. The top prize is a quite beautiful crystal trophy.

Congratulations to all of the tribal employees who took part in the Recreation Valentine's Day office decorating contest.

There were 15 official entries, each participant creating unique ways to share in the spirit of the day.

First place went to the Education Branch office, featuring a miniature teepee with lights, historic photographs and more. Second place went to the office of the Early Childhood Education Center. And third place went to Health and Human Services at the Family Resource Center.

Honorable mentions are the KWSO Media Center, the Counseling Center, the Budgets-Cash Management Office at Administration. More honorable mentions:

Logistics administration at Fire Management-Prevention-Dispatch;

Children's Protective Services, and the Warm Springs Academy office. Also: Probate at the courthouse. Public Utilities-Custodial. Legal at upstairs at the courthouse; and the main Courthouse offices.

The Department of Health and Human Services offices at the former elementary school building; and the Recreation office at the Community Center.

Iron Chefs cook at competition

Courtesy Rosanna Sanders, W.S. OSU Extension.

The participants at this year's Iron Chef cook-off competition, hosted by Warm Springs OSU Extension and the school district, were Derise Jefferson, Taemian Webb and Joshua White. Phillip Tanewasha was also a team member but wasn't able to be at the regional competition. Thank you to the regional judges, Starla Greene, Stephanie Russell and Michael Baker.

Special district election this spring

A Special District Election is coming up in May. Ballots to Warm Springs reservation voters will include two positions on the Jefferson County School District 509-J Board of Directors. Courtney Snead and Kevin Richards have filed to retain their seats.

The Jefferson County Library District has two open positions, with Tiffany Turo and Artesha Ballard having filed.

The Jefferson County Educational Service District has four open positions: One each for Ashwood, Culver and Black Butte school districts, and one at large position.

You can find more information on the Jefferson County Clerk's website: jeffco.net/cc/page/currentupcoming-elections

Any candidate who would like to file must fill out and submit an SEL 190 form.

The form is available at Three Warrior's Market, at any County Clerk's office, or the Secretary of State's website: sos.oregon.gov/elections/Documents/SEL190.pdf

Candidates can either pay the filing fee of $10, or he or she can choose to file by signature petition.

If you choose to file by collecting signatures, contact your county clerk's office, if you need assistance. The last Special District Election had several candidates from Warm Springs. The deadline to file for office for the May 16 election is March 16.
