Celebrating 30 years at museum

The Museum at Warm Springs is 30 years old this year, and is celebrating the anniversary with a number of special anniversary events. First is the Spring Clean-Up at the museum grounds on Saturday, March 18. This will be from 1 to 5 p.m. with a reception to follow at 5 to 6:30.

The museum grounds also include the foundation, under construction, of the Veterans Memorial project: This area will also be part of the March 18 clean-up.

Next: The spring exhibit—An Eye for the Rez: Edward Heath Photography—is opening in early April. Mr. Heath has become a renowned photographer of the reservation. At the exhibit opening, on April 6, there will be a reception that afternoon, followed by classes for youth.

Then in the summer and fall will be the exhibition A Thirty-Year Museum Retrospective. This will include the designs and artwork of Donald J. Stastny, representing the architects of record, Stastny &

Burke Architecture. Mr. Stastny during a July 26 presentation, will revisit the origins and progress of the design process that created the museum.

Traditional arts classes for tribal members will also start in the summer, celebrating the anniversary.

A fall event will be the museum gala fundraiser, tentatively scheduled to happen in Bend. And then will be be the Thirtieth Annual Tribal Member and Youth Art Exhibition

A message from W.S. Social Security office

Rosemary 'Mushy' Alarcon, the Warm Springs Social Security—Aged Persons with Disabilities representative, would like to share the following recent announcement:

The Inspector General for the Social Security Administration has designated this Thursday, March 9 as National 'Slam the Scam' Day—an outreach campaign to raise public awareness of Social Security scams and other government imposter scams. This is part of National Consumer Protection Week through March 11.

Last year, the Federal Trade Commission received over 191,000 complaints of government imposter scams. Of the total number who reported scams, 14.6 percent said they lost money to a scammer. Total loss was estimated at $508.96 million.

To prevent further losses, the Social Security Administration urges everyone to use caution when receiving calls or messages from someone claiming to be from a government agency.

Recognizing the basic signs of a scam is helpful in stopping fraudulent activity. Remember:

- · Scammers pretend to be from an agency or organization you know, in order to gain your trust.
- Scammers say there is a problem or a prize.
- · Scammers pressure you to act immediately.
- · Scammers tell you to pay in a specific way.

Social Security will never:

Sunday March 26

· Threaten arrest or legal action

if someone does not immediately send money to resolve an overpayment.

- Promise to increase benefits or resolve identity theft issues for a fee or by moving money into a protected account.
- · Require payment with a retail gift card, prepaid debit card, cryptocurrency, wire transfer, internet currency, or by mailing

· Send text, email, or social media messages that contain personal information.

Visit the Social Security Administration scam awareness and social media resources web pages for additional resources and information on how to report Social Security Scams.

A new exhibit—An Eye for the Rez: Edward Heath Photography—opens Thurday, April 6. This exhibition will feature new photographs by Warms Springs photographer Edward Heath.

66 years after Celilo flooding

Celilo Falls—or Wyam in several Native languages, meaning 'echo of falling water' or 'sound of water upon the rocks'—was the central tribal fishing area on the Columbia River.

The name refers to a series of cascades and waterfalls that existed at the location where The Dalles dam now stands. Before the inundation, Wyam was the longest continually inhabited community on the

General Session

North American continent.

On March 10, 1957, The Dalles dam was closed, while hundreds of observers looked on, and the rising Lake Celilo rapidly silenced the falls, submerging the fishing platforms and consuming the village of Celilo, ending an age-old existence for those who lived there. The small community, Celilo Village, exists nearby, overlooking the former location of the falls.

Languages: Hosting conference this month

The Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, Education and the Culture and Heritage teachers are leaders nation-wide and beyond in the field. Just last fall, for example, the tribes' Language teachers received the National Indian Education Association Cultural Freedom Award:

"Your program is a testament to the strength of our tribal community leaders by showing both humility and passion for this work in giving our Native students access to culture, language, history and the education they need," the NEIA president said at the awards ceremony last October at Oklahoma City.

The teachers, Culture and Heritage, Education and the tribes this month will host a four-day conference—Healing Through Our Languages—March 26-29 at the Oregon State University Cascades campus in Bend

This will be a chance for the teachers and other Language educators to share in their experiences, wisdom and teaching techniques. Speakers and guests will arrive from the Oregon tribes, plus from California, Washington and Idaho.

The list of speakers is impressive in each of the conference topic categories: Teacher to teacher; Linguistics Computer Technology; Youth Leadership; and Native Lifeways in Education. In addition to the discussions, there will be a salmon bake at OSU-Cascades, and nearby field trips. See the Agenda at right.
