

25 years in prison for fatal wreck

The driver of a vehicle that caused a wreck, taking the lives of three individuals, has been sentenced to 25 years in prison. Passing away in the November 2022 wreck were Saralee Spino McCormick, 27; her niece Jessica Johnson, 15; and nephew Jesiah Johnson, 13, all from Warm Springs. The incident happened as Audrey McHugh, 29, was speeding on Highway 26 in icy conditions, under the influence of intoxicants. She attempted to pass a vehicle, causing the crash. McHugh was later convicted of three counts of manslaughter and driving under the influence.
