

First-ever Tribal Youth Affinity Crew

A summer youth Warm Springs Conservation Corps crew is recruiting for crew team members. The Central Oregon Youth Conservation Corps are seasonal jobs run in partnership with the U.S. Forest Service: The COYCC is hiring youth for the Warm Springs crew who are 16 to 18 years of age.

This will be eight weeks of natural resources conservation work for the first ever Tribal Youth Affinity Crew. The pay is $15 per hour for total possible pay of $4,200 over the summer. The work is from June 24 to August 15, Monday through Thursday schedule for three-days weekends every weekend, and the Fourth of July off.

As an Indigenous Youth Crew Corps member, the team members will learn job skills by improving public land, and keeping the communities safer from wildfire. The program is a training opportunity for the next generation of conservationists. There will be a College Day at Central Oregon Community College, and a Career Day hosted by over a dozen Forest Service professionals. The program is through the Heart of Oregon Corps (see page 3 for more).

Job opening: Lines For Life youth development coordinator

Lines For Life seeks to hire a Warm Springs youth development coordinator. This part-time position has a salary range of $21.50 to $24 an hour. The person will be in the office one to three times per week, 20 hours per week with a variable schedule that may include weekend events.

The youth development coordinator reports to the YouthLine Native program supervisor.

Lines for Life is a regional non-profit organization that is dedicated to preventing substance abuse and suicide, offering help and hope to individuals and communities while promoting mental health for all. The work addresses a spectrum of needs that include intervention, prevention, and advocacy.

When a crisis arises or support is needed, Lines for Life is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, every day of the year to intervene with personalized help.

The Warm Springs youth development coordinator will help in the supervision of youth peer intervention specialist volunteers on a YouthLine satellite team, a confidential teen-to-teen phone, text and chat line to help youth deal with bullying, depression, substance abuse or any other issues that can make teen years especially painful.

This position will work at Lines for Life's satellite center in Warm Springs and at the Central Oregon call center location in Bend. The team also collaborates with the Portland call center to ensure that all contacts are answered with care, compassion, and empathy, all while staying within the scope of the YouthLine program.

This Warm Springs Youth development coordinator will also collaborate with the Central Oregon YouthLine coordinator to engage local youth throughout the reservation, and surrounding Central Oregon region in mental health related prevention outreach activities and classroom education.

Some responsibilities of the position:

- Demonstrate the culture of Lines for Life by modeling behavior that supports the goals and philosophies of Lines for Life.
- Supervise YouthLine peer intervention specialist volunteers during the Warm Springs satellite office hours of operation. Currently the Bend Call Center is open 4 nights per week between 2:30 pm – 8 pm with a goal is to increase the number of nights per week in the future. The Warm Springs satellite team anticipates being open 1 night per week.

- Support Warm Springs youth volunteers in youth and work force development activities through their volunteer experience.

- Assist the Central Oregon Assistant YouthLine Director and Portland YouthLine staff with training Warm Spring youth volunteers with detailed attention to cultural

This position requires flexibility in schedule to meet outreach needs and requires some work on weekends. Travel is required throughout the Central Oregon region for outreach plus, occasional meetings in Portland.

If you are interested, contact Rosanna Jackson, Youthline Native Supervisor, 1112 Wasco Street, Warm Springs. You can contact her at: RosannaJ@linesforlife.org
