Apology

I would like to apologize to the victims and to the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs. I am getting the help I need to turn my life around. I hope you can forgive me for my actions. I'll do my best to make better decisions. Ambrosia Suppah.

Lines for Life W.S. youth development doordinator

Lines for Life seeks to hire a Warm Springs youth development coordinator. The compensation is $21.50 to $24 per hour. This is a part-time and non-exempt position.

The youth coordinator reports to the YouthLine Native program supervisor.

The schedule: 20 hours per week with a variable schedule that may include weekend events. Expected to be in the office Thursday from 12 noon to 7 p.m. The other hours need some flexibility, because it will depend on scheduled community outreach events that occur at community locations such as classrooms. When there are no scheduled community events, the hours outside of Thursdays will be in office. Flexibility to work occasional weekend events is required.

About the organization: Lines for Life is a regional non-profit organization that is dedicated to preventing substance abuse and suicide.

We offer help and hope to individuals and communities and promote mental health for all. Our work addresses a spectrum of needs that include intervention, prevention, and advocacy. We educate, train, and advocate to prevent issues of substance abuse, mental illness, and thoughts of suicide and when a crisis arises or support is needed, we are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, every day of the year to intervene with personalized help.

Warm Springs Youth Development Coordinator Position Overview: This position will assist in the supervision of youth peer intervention specialist volunteers on a YouthLine satellite team, a confidential teen-to-teen phone, text and chat line to help youth deal with bullying, depression, substance abuse or any other issues that can make teen years especially painful.

This position will work at Lines for Life’s satellite center in Warm and will provide crisis intervention support and mentorship to volunteers. This team will also collaborate with the Portland call center to ensure that all contacts are answered with care, compassion, and empathy, all while staying within the scope of the YouthLine program.

The position will also collaborate with the Central Oregon YouthLine

Coordinator to engage local youth throughout the Warm Springs Reservation and surrounding Central Oregon region in mental health related prevention outreach activities and classroom education.

Responsibilities: Demonstrate the culture of Lines for Life by modeling behavior that supports the goals and philosophies of Lines for Life. Monitor and mentor YouthLine peer intervention specialist volunteers during the Warm Springs satellite office hours of operation Support Warm Springs youth volunteers in youth and work force development activities through their volunteer experience. Assist the Central Oregon Assistant YouthLine Director and Portland YouthLine staff with training Warm Spring youth volunteers with detailed attention to cultural competency, connectedness, recruitment, and retention of youth volunteers.

And other dutiesand perform other duties as assigned. Rosanna Jackson, Youthline Native Supervisor, Lines For Life, 1112 Wasco Street, Warm Springs, OR 97761 RosannaJ@linesforlife.org
