

From Miss Warm Springs

A Holiday Season greeting from Miss Warm Springs Kahmussa Green: It is great to be back home, and see family, friends and community members! I spent the day in the water at Kah-Nee-ta Hot Springs Resort, then made it to the tree lighting at Indian Head Casino for a few round dances....

Museum at Warm Springs blessed with many donations

The Museum at Warm Springs has received many donations this year. “This one (above) is the most spectacular—a hand woven work, not loomed,” said Elizabeth Woody, museum executive director.

The work is an historic Wishham beaded purse that was purchased this year for the museum Permanent collection. “The Wasco Wishram Watlala made these types, and they are extremely rare,” Ms. Woody said.

Notes...

The Warm Springs Car Lights Parade will be on Thursday, December 12. The theme is The Grinch. Line-up is at 4 p.m., judging at 5 and the parade starts at 6.

At the Early Childhood Education Center, Head Start will be closed this Thanksgiving week.

Daycare and Pre-School Care classrooms will be open on Monday and Tuesday next week with early closure on Wednesday at noon.

The Madras Saturday Market Annual Holiday Market will be Friday and Saturday, November 29-30 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds.

There will be home-made crafts, food, and music.

The Annual Native Arts and Crafts Fair at the Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fish Commission returned this past week. The CRITFC Native Arts and Crafts Fair is a chance for the community to find distinctive gifts for friends and family, support Indigenous artists directly, and contribute to the meaningful cause of helping the tribal fishers.
