

A thank-you for Pi-Ume-Sha Stickgame events

We would like to thank everyone who contributed to the Pi-Ume-Sha Stickgame events. Thank you to our Tribal Council and Indian Head Casino for contributing to prize money for our tournaments.

Thank you to all those who purchased tickets for the beaded hat raffle, to raise money for sweaters for the first-place winners of the Main Event and Bonehog Tournament; and to Chris Crance for paying the remaining balance.

This year we had a Stickgame float in the parade to honor Chief Delvis Heath, who has joined us many times to play stickgame and sing his songs. We took second-place, and we donated those funds to prize money for the Bonehog Tournament. Thank you to the Parade Committee.

Thank you to everyone who purchased stickgame raffle tickets, as all funds also went to prize money for the Bonehog Tournament. Thank you Mona Starr, Chris Crane, Moss Smartlowit, Donna Torrez, Gerri McKay, Ken Tadena, Leno Looney, Donnie Quinelle, Julia Heath, Cecilia, and Marissa Andy for donating items to our raffle.

Thank you to Tribal Council, Power and Water Enterprises, Kim Starr, Katie Wallulat7um, Mona Starr, Cecelia Andy, Marissa Andy, Charles Selam Jr., and Raelynn Jim who donated all

paper products or food to the three meals we provided to our guests.

Thank you to Jeremy Doney for playing your songs for all of us. Thank you to Cleda Peterson and Donald Quenelle for pointing the traditional games.

We provide meals every year to ensure our visitors are fed and enjoy their time in Warm Springs. We want them to feel welcome, and hope they join us again. Every year we have visitors from all over join our little tournament, and we appreciate each and every one. Pi-Ume-Sha is the only time we get to play at home. Stickgame has long been played by many tribes
