

TITLE 1V :

Trip to OMSI was well attended by 13 Title 1V students. Those attending - Mike Colton, Jeff Mercier, Micheal Childers, Camille Van Fleet, Milinda & Misty Long, Michelle Cook, Kayla Lyons, Carl & LuAnne Croy, Marlo George, LeLand Hofenbredl and Carla Wheeler. The students viewed "The Chinook Indians of the Columbia River", They had many interesting artifacts, shell and bone wedges, baskets, obsidion, a firedrill, fish hooks made with shells, bones and some rawhide. After lunch we went to the Planetarium and saw a show "Comets". A special THANKS to Margo George and Irene Milsap for their help on our trip.

CRAFT CLASS

Craft class K-3 was well attended by 10 to 15 students last Thursday. We talked about the culture of the Indians of the Southwest. Mrs. Eula Petite, the Title 1V Independent evaluator visited our class and was a great help since she has taught many students how to make God's eyes. Four adults have finished leather tooling and will be starting another project next class.

Jargon Class

Our jargon class has been reviewing words and stories that we learned last year. We will be getting new stories and learning new words each class. Our attendance has been 10 to 12. We really appreciate Mrs. Eula Petite for teaching us. Marion Henry, Home School Counselor.
