

CONFEDERATED TRIBES OF GRAND RONDE INDIANS
FUNDING PROFILE

The following are funded projects under which the Tribe is currently operating and providing services to its members.

Administration for Native Americans - $180,000.00, a three year project to strengthen tribal management through formulation of management plan, restoration plan, comprehensive development plan and a statistical planning document. This project began 9-1-81 and employs four tribal members.

Campaign for Human Development - $15,000.00, a one year project to organize community, update tribal rolls and educate tribal members on restoration.

Church Women United - $5,000.00 one-time money to create a slide show on termination and restoration. Slide show has been completed and is a vital tool in educating both Indian and non-Indian people.

Chiles Foundation - $15,000.00 one year project to build a greenhouse for economic development employing future technology. Project also aims to train tribal youths in marketing and agriculture. Chiles Foundation also donates the services of its bookkeeper to train a tribal member in accounting.

McKenzie River Gathering - $1,200.00 one-time money to assist in equipment purchases.

National Indian Luthern Board - $2,400.00 one year project to set up a wholesale and retail ceramic bead shop with a gift and craft retail component. This project is expected to generate substantial economic development because it is expected that the 27 Title V programs of Oregon will contract with the Tribe for craft supplies.

Food for Hunger Project - $800.00 for rototiller and supplies for garden to supplement tribal elders' food supplies.

Boise Cascade - $200.00 per year general support.

Sitka Foundation - $1,000.00 for copy machine.

Gannet Foundation - $4,500.00 To purchase new copier.
