CTGR SEEK SEAT ON COMMISSION ON INDIAN SERVICES:

At the request of CTGR, Senator Dell Isham and Representative Paul Hanneman, co-sponsored Senate Bill 311 which allows for a seat for CTGR on the Commission on Indian Services. The Commission is a state commission created by statute in 1975 for the purpose of improving services to Indians in Oregon. The ten Commission members are appointed jointly by the President of the Oregon Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The Commission selects it's own officers- a Chairman and Vice-Chairman- to serve One year terms. Current Members of the Commission on Indian Services are: Conf. Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation; Conf. Tribes of the Umatilla Reservation; Burns Piate Tribe; Conf. Tribes of Siletz Indians of Oregon; Klamath Falls/Chiloquin; Portland Urban Area; South Coastal Area; Willamette Valley Area.

Tribal Chairman, Dean Mercier appeared before the Human Services Aging Committee to present testimony in support of Senate Bill 311, Thur, Feb 24, 1983. Marvin Kimsey, Jackie Colton, Kathryn Harrison and Pat Gray were also present at the hearing to lend support to Dean as presented testemony. Kathy Green, Executive Sec./Commission on Indian Services was also available for the questions from the Committee. None were asked. The Bill was passed by unanimous vote, out of the Human Services Aging Committee to the Ways and Means Committee. Hearings for this Committee have not been scheduled yet.
