

CEMETERY SIGN BANDED

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde would like to thank Willamina Lumber Company for banding the sign to be used at the Cemetery entrance. The sign will be completed and hung by Memorial Day for everyone visiting to see.

NOTICE

Parent, teacher involvement is urged to support our Title IV Indian Education Program. There are many benefits our children might receive if we all pull together. Keep our kids in mind!

NOTICE

Persons interested in receiving "SMOKE SIGNALS" should send their name and address to Jackie Colton, Tribal Secretary, The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde Indians, Inc. P.O. Box 94, Grand Ronde, Oregon 97347. We would also like to hear and print news you might have to contribute to the newsletter.

TITLE IV INDIAN EDUCATION NEWS

Suzi Mooney has been chosen Chairperson pro-tem for the Title IV Parent Committee. Suzi is the wife of Pate Mooney and mother of two boys, Timmy and Daniel. She is also a Grand Ronde Indian. Suzi's position will be confirmed at the next Parent Committee meeting to be held May 15, at 7:00 p.m. at the Grand Ronde Grade School.

A new Home/School Counselor has been hired to replace Carmen Haug. Michaelle Lambert started work Wednesday, April 18. Anyone needing help with school related problems should contact Michaelle at the Grand Ronde Grade School, Tribal office or at home.

CRAFT NIGHT CHANGES DAYS

Craft nights held at the Grand Ronde Grade School will be held on Wednesday nights throughout the rest of the school year. All interested parties should plan on attending, the evening starts at 6:30 p.m. The April 16 class will host Pat Hitchcock of Tandy Leather, she will make a presentation on dyeing techniques, show a film for advanced leather work, and display Indian orientated patterns.

NOTICE

Chris and Virginia Baker are responsible for increasing the Indian population by one, Levi was born April 16, at the Dallas Hospital, he weighed in at 7 pds, 8 oz. Grandparents are Marvin and Eleanor Kimsey of Grand Ronde, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Baker of Pendleton.