

BASEBALL NEWS

The Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde baseball team tryout practices have begun with practices being held Tuesdays and Thursdays at 6:30 p.m. at the Grand Ronde Grade School. Doug Colton will be coaching the team again this year, and Merle Leno will be assisting Doug.

Due to the large number of girls turning out, an interest has been shown in starting a girls softball team. A tryout practice for the girls was held Saturday, April 28, at the Grand Ronde Grade School.

MAY GENERAL MEETING

The May General meeting and Potluck will be held Sunday, May 6, at 1:00 p.m. at the Grand Ronde Grade School. Included will be a baked food sale. So, bring your dish, silverware and baked goods!

ANNUAL MEMORIAL DAY POTLUCK

Our second annual Memorial Day Potluck will take place Sunday, May 27, at 1:00 p.m. at the Grand Ronde Grade School. Everyone is invited to attend to get together with family and friends.

OIEA TITLE IV WORKSHOP

The annual OIEA (Oregon Indian Education Association) Title IV Workshop was held in Klamath Falls the 19th, 20th, 21st, and 22nd of April. Attending the workshop were: Members of the Tribal Council, Parent Committee, Home/School Counselor, and Summer School Teacher, Joyce Persons.

Workshops were conducted by Clement Azure, Wayne Snoozy, Bruce Bishop, John Trujillo and several others. Lynn and Linda Anderson welcomed all to the Klamath Country warmly.

The next annual meeting is to be held in Portland. Interested individuals should plan on attending. Many good ideas and technical assistance can be acquired at these workshops.
