THE CONFEDERATED TRIBES OF THE GRAND RONDE COMMUNITY OF OREGON • July 1990

THERE IS REASON TO CHEER!

Plaudits to the graduates of 1990! Concluding the academic year 1989-1990, at the close of June 1990, the Tribal Education Programs realized a total of 9 Adult Vocational Training (AVT) and Higher Education graduates! AND, the positive outlook doesn't just stop with the close of Spring Term! By the end of August 1990, we will have more students graduating as soon as Summer Term practicum is completed. FURTHER, by the close of Fall Term '90, we will have another Higher Education student put the finishing touches on graduation requirements and complete their program as well.

This year's charge to the "graduation finish line" was led by an outstanding group of students, many who earned a Grade Point Averages of a 3.00 or better! For several of these students, school will not stop with graduation. Several AVT and Higher Education students are planning on continuing their education a step further! The graduates of 1990 are:

Andrew Jenness

Jenness Outstanding

Name: Andrew M. Jenness

School: University of Oregon, School of Business

Degree: Bachelor of Science

Program: Economics - Major, Psychology - Minor

On June 10th, 1990, Mr. Jenness received his diploma from the University of Oregon. While attending the University, Andy earned an accumulative GPA of 3.16. During his college experience for a total of 13 terms, Andy earned "B" average or better. He received Dean's List distinction, and was recognized by the University's Office of Multicultural Affairs for the 1989-1990 academic year. He received an Academic Excellence Award by the University. This award is presented to outstanding minority students, and it is based on grades.

Andy was one of 69 students to have received this honor per the academic year.

Andy's parents are LaVern Jenness and Elinore (LaChance) Jenness. He and wife Patty, have two children.

Immediate plans for Andy include a quick trip to New York city to visit a brother. Upon returning to Oregon, he will put the finishing touches on his application efforts to the American Indian Graduate Center, for a scholarship for the 1990-1991 school year. Andy has applied for Law School admission at the University of Oregon. He has also applied and been approved admission into the Willamette University School of Law
