

Energy Program Looking for Eligible Native Americans

The Energy Programs at Community Action Agency of Yamhill Co. and Mid-Willamette Valley Community Action Agency are looking for eligible Native American households for the Low income Weatherization Program.

Weatherization measures that are eligible for installation include general heat waste items such as caulking and weatherstripping, furnace efficiency modifications, attic insulation, wall insulation, under-floor insulation, and storm windows. The sole purpose of this program is to lower energy usage and therefore help lower your utility bills. To be eligible for the weatherization assistance program your household income must meet the guidelines set forth by the federal government. Those guidelines are as follows:

Size of Family Unit	Monthly income	Annual income

Energy Assistance Program

The Low Income Energy Assistance Program helps people once a year with their heat bills. Their income must be under 125% of poverty level. The program will begin on November 5, 1990 for senior citizens and disabled persons who are getting benefits for their disability. Those persons who received assistance last year may be able to complete their applications by mail. Telephone 623-8429 to have the application sent to you.

On December 3, 1990 we will begin taking applications for the remainder of the population. Call the Dallas information and referral office 623-8429 for an appointment after December 2, 1990. If you are unable to come into the Dallas office, we will be taking applications in Grand Ronde at a later date.

Fish & Wildlife Library - Book Review

"Dress 'em Out -

The Complete How to Guide"

Just got a kill? Now what are you going to do with it? The Tribe's fish and wildlife library has the answers you need to field dress, transport and process big game kills, upland birds and waterfowl. Just come in the fish and wildlife office and check out "Dress 'em Out - The Complete How-to-Guide" by Captain James A. Smith. Smith's guide details the dressing out process as well as providing hunting and survival tips and even some simple recipes for your various catches.

Captain Smith's guide includes step-by-step fully illustrated instructions on how to completely field dress, transport, skin or pluck, prepare for trophy mounting, butcher, store and freeze and prepare for eating the most hunted species of big game and birds in North America.

"Dress 'em Out" includes full descriptions, habitat and hunting tips on deer, elk, black bear, mountain lions, dove, quail, pheasant, grouse and wild turkeys. Plus, the guide also includes special items on survival technique, knives, cooling game, skinning and tanning, care of bird dogs and water fowling. Many recipes are also included in the comprehensive guide. If you're looking for answers Smith's guide is complete and easy to read. Check it out now in the Tribes' fish and wildlife office.

Firewood

The Forestry Department needs to update their firewood list. To do this we need to know if a) your phone number has changed; b) you are no longer interested in remaining on our list; c) you are not on our list and would like to be. Please contact Barbara at 879-5522 to make these changes.

L.A. Gear

There will be a sale of L.A. Gear products at the November 4, 1990 General Council meeting.

Profits from this event will be used to fund Tribal Member Youth Activities.

Equipment will be at prices up to 50% off regular price. Anybody interested in sales opportunities with L.A. Gear should be present for more information.
