

Wedding Announcement

Reyn and Liz Leno of Willamina announce the engagement of their daughter Angela to Ariaah Fasana, son of Mark and Pat Fasana of Sheridan, Oregon. The couple are both students at Portland State University. Angela is a Junior majoring in Sociology and Administration of Justice. Ariaah is a Senior majoring in Biology. He is also a member of the Portland State wrestling team. A wedding date has not yet been determined.

Special Birthday

Teany Miller, Grand Ronde tribal member, turned 92 on March 21. Teany was born in 1901 and is the daughter of Jane Menard and Andrew Smith, who named her Teany because she was a very small baby.

Her grandparents were Peter Menard and Elizabeth Shangaretta. She married Henry Miller, a building contractor, and has lived in many Oregon towns including Portland, Salem, and Newport. She has a daughter, Ethelmae Miller Kipp.

Coberg Pow-wow

July 17, 1993—Grand Entry 3:00 P.M.

July 18, 1993 Grand Entry 1:00 P.M.

The Native American Tribes will join Coberg Golden years as part of its Oregon Trail Celebration. We need:

- *Dancers—all tribes welcome
- *Booths—to sell fry bread, Indian taco, stew
- *Artifact displays
- *Booths—to sell books, regalia supplies, and finished art work
- *Representatives in regalia to answer questions from visitors about customs and traditional Native American beliefs of preserving our environment.

We would like to have the Pow-wow be an ongoing event each third weekend in July with our Golden Years celebration. Please join us.

Coberg is 4 miles north of Eugene on I-5.
