

Grand Ronde Royalty Court

The following young tribal members are the Grand Ronde Royalty Court members for 1993-94.

They will be participating in parades, pow-wows, and selling raffle tickets throughout the summer in preparation for the Royalty Competition at the Grand Ronde Pow-wow this summer. They will be judged on participation of required events, personal interview, public speaking ability, dance ability, knowledge of tribal/family history, poise & personality, and regalia.

SENIOR PRINCESSES

Kristina Dizick

Kristina is the 17-year old daughter of Sharon and Perry Dizick. She grew up in Forks, Washington and now lives in Sheridan. Her hobbies include swimming, walking, and socializing. She is looking forward to learning more about her tribe so she can teach others.

Kristina Dizick

Lisa Schmid

Lisa is 18 and the daughter of Ken Schmid and Sandra Finch. She has lived in Grand Ronde for three years and has done some work for the Tribe's Social Services Department through the JTPA Program. Her interests include drumming, dancing, shopping, and going to pow-wows.

Lisa Schmid

JUNIOR PRINCESSES

Melanie Summerlin

Melanie is running for Junior Miss Grand Ronde, and is 11. She is the daughter of Dwight and Margie Summerlin. Melanie resides with her family in Olympia, Washington. Her hobbies include: reading Native American stories, target practicing, art, and playing the clarinet. Melanie is excited to learn more about her heritage.

Melanie Summerlin

Sydney Clark

Sydney Clark, the daughter of John and Michelle Clark, will be 11 in July. She lives in Sheridan, Oregon where she attends Chapman Elementary School. Her hobbies include: basketball and gymnastics. Sydney is looking forward to learning more about her heritage and showing her pride in her ancestors by dressing as they did.

Sydney Clark

Courtney Warren

Don't forget to buy raffle tickets and help support the 10th Annual Grand Ronde Pow-wow! This year's Pow-wow will be August 20, 21, & 22.

Honorary Court participants will be featured in the July edition of Smoke Signals.

Courtney Warren

Courtney will be 11 this month and is the daughter of Terri Warren. Courtney lives with her mother in Eugene, Oregon where she attends Goshen Elementary. She is an active member of the Siletz Dancers (A group from different tribes who perform at schools, etc.). her interests include drumming, dancing, meeting new people, and traveling. She enjoys beading, collecting rocks, and baseball cards. Courtney has been a member of the Honorary Court this year and says she has had a lot of fun. She is always learning from her experiences and her elders.

Kathryn Harrison and 1992-93 Grand Ronde Royalty Members: Emma Leno, Courtney Warren, Amelia Houg, Molly Rimer, Erica Empey and Allison Empey.