Guidelines for Royalty Court

- ◆ Participants must be an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of Grand Ronde. Participants must be enrolled in public or private school and in one of the following age categories: Tiny Tot — 0 to 5 years; Honorary Court — 6 to 10 years; Jr. Miss — 11 to 14 years; Sr. Miss — 15 to 19 years.
- ◆ Participants must have their own regalia that is appropriate for all events. It is not the responsibility of the Pow-Wow Committee, Royalty Committee, Tribal Council, or any other program to provide these things for any reason for you. There will be a list of scheduled events for participants to attend. A part of the judging requirements will be to attend each event.
- ◆ Royalty Court has no paid positions. The two Queens will receive a preset amount of travel money for attending required events. Fund-raisers will be the responsibility of the court and their parents/sponsors to coordinate. The monies raised will help the participants with travel expenses.
- ◆ All Royalty Court participants are expected by their conduct, to represent the Grand Ronde Tribe, their family and themselves with integrity and gracious spirit at all times. This means that participants must show good judgment by not participating in any activities that would bring adverse publicity to yourself or the Tribe while you are a member of the Royalty Court. Full dedication and preparation to represent the Tribe in a positive way is expected. Participants must be single, childless, never married. Participants must be alcohol and drug free.
- ◆ Royalty Court participants and their parent/sponsor must attend all required events (Pow-Wows, parades, fund-raisers, organizational meetings, and others as assigned.) Absences can be prearranged with the Royalty Committee Advisor. Three unexcused absences will result in disqualification from the Royalty Court. Please note that participants will receive 1 point for every event. Royalty Court participants will be expected to stay for the duration of events. This includes helping to set up for events such as meetings and parades, as well as dancing in Grand Entry and staying until the flags are retired unless pre-approved with the Royalty Committee Advisor. Participants will be expected to speak in front of large groups of people. Royalty Court participants must be willing and able to dance. Remember: You are all a part of one team and will be expected to treat yourselves, running mates and others with respect at all times.
- ◆ Royalty Court participants will be judged at the Royalty Court Pageant at the annual August Pow-Wow. Participants will be judged on dance, speech, attendance to required events, interview questions, and ticket sales. Participants are required to make at least one article of their regalia.
- ◆ ANY MISCONDUCT WILL RESULT IN IMMEDIATE DISQUALIFICATION FROM THE ROYALTY COURT AND WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO ENTER AGAIN.
- ◆ Must have a parent/sponsor who will accompany Royalty Court participants to events as well as help coordinate fund-raisers and related events.

There will be a mandatory meeting the last week of April for those who apply to the Royalty Court, so please have your applications mailed in by April 15. (The sooner, the better for processing.) You may call Camille Mercier at (503) 879-2901 if you have any questions or concerns.

Please complete and mail to Camille Mercier,
