

Third security guard training to be offered

In partnership with Chemeketa and Clackamas Community Colleges, the Tribal Education Division will offer a second Security Officer Training Academy to begin October 1. Participants will receive certificates of completion for the LE-4502 Security Officer Academy, as well as certification in: First Aid and CPR training, ASP Baton Weaponry, Chemical Spray Weaponry, and Fire Arms Safety.

Students who complete the program will earn six college credit hours.

The training program will cover a period of ten weeks. Class location is in Salem, at Chemeketa Community College, Building 3, Room 118. The class is limited to 35 participants.

Training tuition is $567 per student. Tribal members will have tuition provided by the Education Division. Non-tribal members must provide an initial payment of $250 at the beginning of the training, and must sign a payment agreement.

Students who are agency sponsored through JTPA, Mid-Willamette Valley Jobs Council, Vocational Rehabilitation, Goodwill Industries, etc., must have the agency contact the Tribal Education office prior to the conclusion of the first week of training. For more information, contact Hollie Larsen at 1-800-422-0232 or (503) 879-2276.

Interested in Construction?

The Chemeketa Construction Skills Training Program can help you. In 22 weeks, you'll learn technical background and gain the hands-on experience employers in all facets of construction are seeking. You'll earn 33 college credits and be awarded a certificate of completion once you have finished the program.

The program consists of two 11-week courses that are offered in sequence. Both are held weekdays at the Chemeketa construction training facility.

Fundamentals of Construction, (CTX050) is an orientation to construction methods, standards, and safety practices.

Applied Construction Principles, (CTX060) places an emphasis on residential/commercial construction and lets you put your skills to work on actual projects.

Classes begin September 23. Tribal members interested in enrolling in the Training Program, can contact the Tribal Education Division at 1-800-422-0232, ext. 2276 for Dean or ext. 2275 for Hollie.

SBD posts classes for this month

YOU AND YOUR BUSINESS IDEA

This class focuses on helping anyone who is thinking of going into business. One day class. Tuition: $10, which applies toward the Starting a Successful Business class if you choose to continue.

STARTING A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS

Meets weekly for 10 weeks. Tuition: $100 (5 college credits available).

SMALL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

Meets monthly for 12 months. Tuition: $100 (6 college credits available).

For more information about these classes please call Small Business Development at 1-800-422-0232.

Adult Education has plenty to offer

The Adult Education Program now includes the following services:

1. Fee coverage for bus passes to ABE/GED classes. (Please submit proof of attendance and fares.)

2. Tuition and books for one skill enhancement class per term. These are classes which will improve your job skills, job performance, or offer personal development opportunities such as a beginning computer class. They also include classes which will improve math or writing skills. Call and ask if you have a need which you think falls into these categories.

3. Senior Citizen's Classes: Many areas offer classes for senior citizens at special rates. Our programs can cover the fees for these classes. We are also hoping to offer some classes locally.

4. Classes which offer culturally relevant activities and information. This is an area we are in the process of developing and we would love to have your input. More information will be coming in the next month.

5. GED Tuition assistance, counselling, planning, and local classes. Our goal is to keep improving services. The Adult Education Coordinator is planning to be in Portland and Eugene in September. She is also available to visit other areas in the state at the request of tribal members.

For more information on these services, contact Gayla Tulensru at 1-800-422-0232 or (503) 879-2282.

GED Classes offered in Grand Ronde

JoAnn Leathers will be instructing community GED classes in Grand Ronde this fall. They will begin September 24, and will be held at the Education Classroom on Highway 22. Classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday, from 4-7 p.m. Pretesting for the GED and all instruction is free! For more information on earning your GED certificate, please contact Gayla at the tribal offices, or JoAnn at Chemeketa Community College (503) 472-9482.
