CHRIS LeDOUX and his band gave a high energy performance at Spirit Mountain Casino on January 22. His Copenhagen-chewin' fans were a little rowdy, but well behaved. The energy level peaked when LeDoux rode his mechanical bull on stage.

SBD seeks current list of construction and repair businesses

Small Business Development (SBD) would like to come up with a list of Grand Ronde tribal members who own business(es) in the building trades; where the business is located; what the area of expertise is; and how long you have been in business. Some active members would like to propose that tribal member businesses receive "first chance" to bid on tribal projects. They feel it is a good idea to encourage the support of private businesses owned by tribal members. SBD was asked to come up with an exhaustive list of these individuals and their businesses. The problem is that our present list is not complete or up to date. It has been the practice of the Tribe not to "butt" into its members' affairs and to hold any information that is had in the strictest confidence. So, if you are one of our tribal members who has a business and you wouldn't mind letting the Small Business Division of the Tribe know about your business, we would love to hear from you and keep our information current.

We are very interested in helping you in your business endeavors by letting people know who you are and what you do (not people who want to sell you things) but that would be a lot easier to do if we knew more about your business. So, if this seems like a good idea to you too, please fill out this questionnaire and mail it back to the Tribal Small Business Development Division.

Information on Your Business

What is the name of your business?
Describe your business (What do you make/sell/provide?)
Where is your business located (complete mailing and/or business address)?
What is your phone number?
How long have you been in this business?
How big is your business (number of employees, or capacity, or other relevant indicator)?
What are your plans for the future of your business (get smaller, close, stay the same, grow some, grow a lot)?
How can we help you meet your goals?
