

Tribal quilt project

The Tribal History Quilting Bee is scheduled for Saturday, August 23 at the Community Center from 10 a.m. to noon. For those who can not attend, another quilting session will be held Friday, August 29 at the Community Center from 10 a.m. to noon.

Instructor, SueAnn Suderman will be present to help anyone who needs advice or assistance. If you have not picked up your photo fabric and other materials, it will be available at either sewing session. There is still time to have your family photos included on the quilt. If you would like to participate in the project, contact June Olson at 1-800-422-0232.

Langlely; LaChance

We are gathering information on relatives of the Langlely and LaChance families and friends. Look for our booth at the Powwow. Please bring all your pictures, bibles, and family information. We are compiling the information in a book for all to see. Also in the near future we are organizing a family reunion.

Feel free to contact me at home: Cindy Gullede, 1005 Ferry Street, Space 27, Dayton, Oregon 97114. Phone 864-3385 or 864-4303.

The Fish and Wildlife Committee is thinking of DEVELOPING AN ARCHERY RANGE for tribal members.

The committee would like input from the membership before proceeding.

Please fill out this survey and mail to Natural Resources P.O. Box 70 Willamina, OR 97396.

- Yes, I would use the archery range.
- No, I have no use for an archery range.
- I have no use for the archery range, but would like to see it available for others.

Happy Birthday Number One Son Gary Lee William Guzman

12 years old on August 16
Love, mom and brothers

Tribal member grad

Kathaleen (Katie) Marelle Ibabao is the daughter of Conrad Terry Ibabao, Sr. who resides in Portland, Oregon. She is the granddaughter of Nicanor Taran Ibabao (deceased) formerly of Dogon Numancia, Capiz Phillipine Islands and Nellie Maxine Clark Porter residing in Hoquiam, Washington.

Katie graduated from Clackamas High School on June 6, 1997. Katie has a beautiful singing voice. She participated in the Clackamas Choir, she was also selected for the 'A' Choir and Cavaliers. She has sung for many school functions. Katie was honored to sing at the Baccalaureate and Graduation Commencements.

Katie participated in Basketball and Field and Track in Middle School and High School. Two years ago she decided to concentrate on Field and Track. She earned a Varsity Letter in Track in 94-95 and 95-96. Katie was consistently a front runner and leader in 400 Meter Relay winning the All Star Award, First Place in 4X100 Relay, First Place in Long Jump and Triple Jump. Katie was voted by her teammates as the Most Improved Player and Most Valuable Player. She went to State finals two years consecutively.

Katie was featured in the Clackamas Review, a local newspaper, and the Oregonian. Her longest jump was 17' 11". Katie won a scholarship to Clackamas Community College for her athletic ability where she will begin college this fall season. She would like to major in Sports Medicine. This summer she is working with her Dad in construction. Her hobbies are singing, staying closely connected with the many friends she has made, and collecting gorillas and monkeys.

Sincerely, her proud father,
Conrad T. Ibabao, Sr.

Joy

*Joy is a word
That we all hide.
Joy is a feeling
From down deep inside.*

*Joy is kind.
Joy is good.*

*Joy is a word
That can be well understood.
Joy is peace.
Joy is love.*

*Joy can be gentle,
Kind and true.*

Joy is a thought that can Pull you through.
